Our summer session is only for those who already play an instrument (beginners classes will resume in the fall). This summer we will have our Intermediate Band only (strings may be playing this summer – check back later). We will be learning some new music and playing the old stuff as well, and doing some performances at local Assisted Living Facilities or Nursing Homes.

Dates are: all Wednesdays in June plus July 4(?) and July 11.

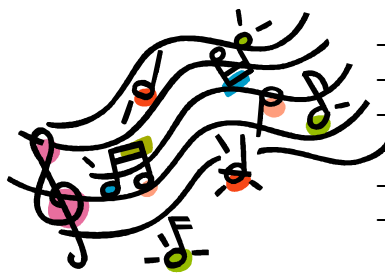

New members only, please answer the following questions:

- Beginner on this instrument, but I read music and
I used to play -or- I currently play _____
- I used to play, but haven't played in years (or decades!)
- I started playing this instrument as an adult, ____ years ago
- Other (Please explain _____)

For my information... if you had children go through the Wayland Schools during my tenure here (since 1980), please tell me where they are and what they are doing (if they've graduated!)

Information about rides.

- I will need a ride to rehearsal
- I would like to car-pool
- I would be willing to give someone a ride if it was on my way

How did you hear about our band?
